MOTHERS AND DAME FASHION

Women Molds Her Daughter in Foundation of Style and Taste From Earliest Years.

Take the average girl, carefully note the manner in which she is dressed and then you have an advertisement—good or bad—for her mother.

In some subtle manner a mother molds her daughter from babyhood in the style of her clothing, and it is a very important molding, too. For if clothes do not make the man they do go a long way in giving a true impression of a woman.

Every new dress that a mother buys for her little girl is a small stone in the foundation of style and taste that will guide her daughter in future years.

I was taking tea with a well-known public woman recently, and she called my attention to two young business girls who were sitting at another table in the restaurant. From the hat of one hung a faded-looking rose, her low-necked blouse was not improved by her soiled coat collar, and above her cheap-looking patent shoes showed tawdry openwork stockings. The other wore a smart, perfectly plain hat, neat, well-fitting costume, and was tastefully booted.

"Different mothers!" said my companion briefly. — Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

Better one boil on the stove than two on the neck.

Breakfasts of "Other Days"

ran something like this:

Ham, bacon or sausage;
fried potatoes; doughnuts and coffee—prepared by overworked mothers.

Today's and Tomorrow's Breakfasts

run about like this:

Post Toasties

—with cream or fruits; a poached egg or two; crisp toast; and a cup of Postum—
a royal starter for any day.

Quick, easy to serve, appetizing, and—

"Mother" has it easier!
